

Further consolidation of the media will not serve the public interest. As President Eisenhower said, only Big Government can control Big Business. On June 2nd, I urge you to do your duty to the American people and retain the current ownership rules.